

Income Thresholds for "The 1%" by Metropolitan Area

Map Information

Income Thresholds

By Metropolitan Area

This map illustrates the variation by Metropolitan Area of income levels required to be in top 1 percent of earners. While a US household must earn greater than $380,000 to rank in the top 1 percent of all American households, a much higher income is required in most of California's coastal communities.

Source: MTC, New York Times, U.S. Census
 Cartography: MTC GIS/February 2012
 File: C:\arcgis\Planning\GIS\2012\Newspaper\Income_101\Figure of the Day\Figure of the Day.mxd

Scale:

